Law & Gospel 2023

One of the beautiful things in the Scriptures is how God has inspired them in such a way that the Old Testament and the New Testament interact and shed light on each other. Unfortunately, many of us don't know the Torah (the first five books of the Bible) as well as we should, so we miss out on a lot of those connections. Let's read together this year and in our understanding of our Savior!

Questions to ask when reading the Bible...

- 1) What is the author's point? What does he want those who read his words to understand about themselves, about God, and about being a disciple?
- 2) How would you summarize what this passage is saying in your own words? Is there somebody who needs you to share this with them today?
- 3) How will you put this truth into practice? How will it practically help you follow Jesus as a student, parent, child, coworker, etc.? How will this change how you worship at church and interact with God's people?
- 4) What will you praise God for in this passage? How will you give thanks?
